

VISIONS OF WAR

March 17 - April 25

Always Lost, A Meditation on War

Drefus University Center, UW-STEVENSON POINT

Photographs of the service men and women killed in Iraq and Afghanistan are accompanied by combat photos shot by the staff of the Dallas Morning News. These striking and moving images are juxtaposed with quotations from Aeschylus through Ecclesiastes, Robert E. Lee and soldiers serving today. It is funded by the Nevada Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts.

April 8 - April 11

Combat Paper

9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. NFAC Courtyard, UW-STEVENSON POINT

Combat Paper Paper-making. Combat Paper is a veteran-run collective giving vets the opportunity to turn their uniforms into hand-made paper. As donated uniforms are cut-up, beaten into pulp, and formed into sheets of paper, participants reclaim their uniforms as art and express their experiences with the military.
